

Newmarket July Cup Meeting: Trainer Stats/Notes (+ Royal Ascot LTO Runners)

Stats will look at the last 5 meetings: 2011/12/13/14/15

Firstly a top level look at all those with 4 or more wins, before trying to dig a bit deeper...

Let's go through them in order....

Richard Fahey

ODDS

The market has been some sort of guide, but only that.

So far, those going off over 20/1 are: 0/11, 3 places.

But, he has had places at 50/1, 33/1 and 25/1. I wouldn't automatically put a line through those and for now I won't impose an odds cap on his runners.

But, that does mean that all of his runners here, 20/1 or shorter are:-

35 bets / 10 wins / 16 places / 29% sr / +62 SP / +84 BFSP / AE 2.33

DISTANCE

Distance	Bets	Wins	Win%	P/L(SP)	Places	Place%	Races	Race%	P/L(BF)	P/L(Plc)	A/E
5f	4	2	50	6.75	2	50	4	50	6.13	-0.39	2.41
6f	16	2	12.5	13	6	37.5	12	16.67	22.78	22.65	1.87
7f	16	6	37.5	40.75	9	56.25	15	40	54.48	31.34	3.11
1m	6	0	0	-6	1	16.67	6	0	-6	0.02	0
1m2f	3	0	0	-3	1	33.33	2	0	-3	1.61	0

Those running beyond 7f could clearly do better. 0/10, 2 places to date.

AGE

In general an even spread but he has tended to struggle, relatively, with 3 year olds...

- Age 3: 1/19, 4 places... -11 SP
- 2,4,5 year olds have done best
- Age 6+ : 0/4, 1 place

AGE RESTRICTIONS

And, unsurprisingly given the above he has struggled in 3yo only races...

- 3 yo only: 1/17,4 places

JOCKEY

If Ryan Moore is booked, take note...

- Moore: 3/4, 4 places... +11 SP

TRACK LTO

- Ascot: 2/7, 2 places... +23
- Newcastle: 3/6, 5 places.. +32 SP
- Pontefract: 2/3, 3 places... +3 SP
- York: 1/9,2 places... -1

DISTANCE MOVE

- Moving down in trip from last run: 0/6, 1 place

CLASS MOVE

- Dropping in class from last run: 0/7, 1 place

ODDS LTO

Of some interest are those that were sent off at 9/1 or shorter on their last run...

- 23 bets / 8 wins / 12 places / 35% sr / +44 SP / +55 BFSP /AE 2.8

MICRO SYSTEM 1

- Richard Fahey
- 5-7 furlongs
- NOT Dropping in Class from last run

	Bets	Wins	Win%	P/L(SP)	Places	Place%	Races	Race%	ROI(SP)	P/L(BF)	P/L(Plc)	MxOdd	A/E
ALL	29	9	31.03	59.5	15	51.72	25	36	205.17	81.82	50.05	51.00	2.91
2015	7	2	28.57	13.25	4	57.14	5	40	189.29	20.75	16.29	51.00	2.9
2014	7	1	14.29	6	2	28.57	7	14.29	85.71	9.59	-0.85	26.00	1.41
2013	7	3	42.86	7.75	4	57.14	5	60	110.71	8.91	7.69	51.00	2.91
2012	4	2	50	24.5	3	75	4	50	612.5	33.53	23.56	51.00	7.41
2011	4	1	25	8	2	50	4	25	200	9.04	3.36	17.00	2.56

This looks like a solid enough approach and helps narrow down the number of bets – albeit in general all of his runners here are worth a second glance. He has done best over 5-7f to date but I am sure he will get a winner over further at some point.

Those dropping in class, over 5-7f, are 0/4,0 places in the period. Not the biggest stats pool although he is 0/7 with all such runners, as above.

Those going off over 20/1 are: 0/6 , 2 places.

If you just focussed on those 20/1 or shorter: His record with 3 year olds, and in 3 year old only races is 1/7, 2 places, +1 SP, which compares more favourably than his overall stats with such runners.

Mark Johnston

ODDS

The market has been some guide with all of his runners.

Those going off 14/1 or bigger so far: 0/14, 1 place

For now, let's just focus on those sent off 12/1 or shorter...

DISTANCE

He has really struggled with runners over 7f. Given he has a solid record over 6f, and 10f or further (8f = 0/2, 1 place) that could just be one of those things. However, 7f can be seen as a specialist distance and maybe with these runners he isn't sure what their best trip is...

- 7f: 0/12, 2 places

His record in 3 year old only handicaps is decent enough...

- 3yo: 5/12, 5 places.. +32 SP

CLASS MOVE

Those running at the same class or up 1 class only has been the place to focus...

- Same/Up 1: 6/21, 9 places...+27 SP
- Drop 1: 0/3, 0 places
- Up 2+ : 0/8, 1 place

(a class move isnt just class 2 to class 1 say. A move from Listed to Group 3, for example, is a move of one class, as would be a G2 to G1 say. G3 to G1 would be a move of 2 classes)

HORS RUNS: 90 Days

Of those who had a career run...

- 1 or 2 runs only in previous 90 days: 0/9, 1 place
- 7+ : 0/5, 1 place

CAREER RUNS

- 1-3 career runs only: 0/11, 1 places

CAREER WINS

- 1 win only: 0/9, 2 places

TRACK LTO

- Ascot: 4/12, 6 places... +17 SP

DAYS SINCE RUN

All winners had run within the previous 25 days

- 26 days+ : 0/7, 0 places

Just a quick look at handicaps vs non-handicaps.

Not too much on the non-handicap front.

HANDICAPS

All wins have been in 3 yo only handicaps to date...

- 3yo : 4/10,4 places.. +31 SP
- 2yo: 0/3, 0 places
- 3yo+ : 0/5, 2 places

DISTANCE

- 10f : 3/5, 3 places... +25 SP

MICRO SYSTEM 2

- Mark Johnston
- NOT 7f races
- 12/1 or shorter

	Bets	Wins	Win%	P/L(SP)	Places	Place%	Races	Race%	ROI(SP)	P/L(BF)	P/L(Plc)	A/E
ALL	21	7	33.33	28.95	9	42.86	20	35	137.86	33.24	3.75	2.16

2012	3	1	33.33	8	1	33.33	2	50	266.67	8.18	0.21	3.03
2011	2	0	0	-2	0	0	2	0	-100	-2	0.43	0

Fairly straight forward but it has been a pretty good approach over the last few seasons to homing in on those most likely to run well.

I think this is the best starting point for any systematic approach. When using this as a starter set of data, the stats behind some of the other filters are even smaller. Of course, you can use some of the other stats as a guide.

Those with 1 or 2 runs in previous 90 days within the angle above are 0/4, 0 places (0/9,1 place all runners 12/1<)

In the angle above there have only been 3 runners outside of those running at same class, or up one class – but again those main stats offer a good guide, as do the 'days since run stats' and the 'career run' stats.

John Gosden

Handicaps vs Non Handicaps

- Handicaps; 0/9, 0 places
- Non-Handicaps: 7/31, 14 places

Best just to focus on the Non-Handicaps then...

ODDS

- 3/1 or shorter: 6/14, 9 places... +6 SP
- 10/3 or bigger: 1/17, 5 places... -2 SP

CLASS

- Class 1: 6/18, 10 places... +13 SP
- Class 4: 1/12, 4 places... -8 SP
- Group 3: 4/5, 4 places... +7 SP

MAIDENS

- 1/12, 4 places... -8 SP

HORSE RUNS IN CAREER

- 1 only: 0/5, 0 places

CLASS MOVE

- UP 1 Class: 0/7, 1 place

DAYS SINCE RUN

- 1-15 days: 0/6, 1 place

TRACK LTO

2011	5	1	20	-2	2	40	4	25	-40	-1.91	1.21	1.45

Fairly straight forward again but not many other 'ways in' that I could find for his runners.

From those stats above those that ran over 7f last time out are: 0/5, 2 places.

Likewise those that ran over 7f on their first career start are 0/8, 3 places, and if you removed those you get stats of 6/10. But, that is tentative and rather random I think. Having said that maybe starting a horse off over 7f suggests you are unsure what is/will be their best trip. Nothing to get too hung up on, but interesting.

If he could repeat last season I think we would be happy.

No odds cap albeit those going off 3/1 or shorter are: 5/8. He has had a 25/1 shot go very close in the period, as well as a 14/1 winner.

His other winner was at 3/1 in a Maiden. He was having his first career start (1/4, 2 places with such runners)*

Saeed Bin Suoor

ODDS

- 4/1 or shorter SP: 5/10, 8 places... +7 SP
- 10/1 + : 0/6, 1 place

CLASS

- Class 1: 1/12, 5 places... -2 SP
- Class 2: 2/7, 5 places... +4 SP
- Class 3: 0/2, 2 places
- Class 4: 4/9, 6 places... +6 SP

CAREER RUNS

- 0: 3/8, 5 places... +5 SP

CAREER WINS

- 3+ : 0/5, 1 place

CLASS MOVE

- Same or Dropping in Class: 4/10, 6 places... +13 SP
- Up in class: 0/12, 7 places... (albeit Up 1 is 0/7, 4 places, and overall places suggests some may go in at some point)

MAIDENS

- 4/9, 6 places...+6 SP

No micro systems as such but his maiden runners should clearly be kept onside. All winners 4/1 or shorter. 0/3, 1 place above this. Those running in the same class, or dropping one, should also be marked up.

Richard Hannon (jnr)

Handicap vs Non Handicap

- Handicap: 1/13, 6 places... -10 SP
- Non-Handicap: 6/25, 11 places... +4

ODDS

- 3/1 or shorter: 5/8, 7 places... +8 SP
- 11/1+ : 0/12, 5 places

CAREER RUNS

- 0: 1/7, 3 places...+4 SP
- 1+2: 5/11, 7 places... +5 SP

ORIGIN OF HORSE

- GB Bred: 0/10, 4 places
- IRE: 7/27, 13 places... + 5 SP

Nothing else of note really stands out for Hannon's runners. In general they look like they are well backed and there is certainly no 'way in' for a profitable micro system as such. It is useful to know how his well fancied ones have performed.

Sir Michael Stoute

It should be noted that his record in the last three seasons is only: 1/16, 4 places... against a record of 4/13,8 places in the two seasons before that.

Handicap vs Non Handicap

- Handicap: 1/15, 4 places... -11 SP
- Non- Handicap: 4/14, 8 places... +6 SP

ODDS

- 6/1+ : 0/9, 2 places

DISTANCE

- 5-7f: 0/10, 2 places

Micro Angle... If you just focussed on his non-handicap runners, running over 1 mile or further: 4/10, 6 places... + 10 SP

He had no such runners in 2013, 1/3 in 2014 and 0/3, 1 place last season.

Charles Hills

ODDS

The market has been some guide to his horse's chances...

- 7/1 or shorter: 4/8, 7 places... +16 SP
- 8/1-12/1: 0/5, 2 places
- 14/1+ : 0/12, 0 places

HORS RUNS 90 DAYS

- 0 runs: 0/7, 0 places

HORSE RUNS CAREER

- 0 runs: 0/6, 0 places

DISTANCE MOVE

All winners running at the same distance as LTO..

- Same Class: 4/12, 7 places... +12 SP

CLASS MOVE

- Same/Up 1: 4/12, 5 places...+12 SP
- Up2 +: 0/7, 4 places

PLACING LTO

- Top 3: 4/14, 8 places...+10 SP
- 4th or worse: 0/5, 1 place

Micro Angle... if you exclude his runners that have had 0 runs in previous 90 days (also covers those with no career runs) and focus on those 12/1 or shorter (which covers all wins and places)...

13 bets / 4 wins / 9 places/ 31% sr / +11 SP / +13 BFSP / AE 2.22

Other Trainer Notes

Could Do Better?

- William Haggas: 1/27, 6 places... -24 SP
- A Balding: 1/25, 9 places... -12 SP
- M Channon: 1/26, 5 places... +8 SP
- Charlie Appleby: 0/12, 3 places
- B Meehan: 0/18, 4 places

ROYAL ASCOT LAST TIME OUT

At Aintree we had a 16/1 success in the last race of the meeting (much needed for my pocket!) with an angle that focussed on horses that ran at the Cheltenham Festival Last Time Out. So, with that in mind...

Royal Ascot obviously wasn't far away and so I thought I would see if we could find any 'ways in' with horses that ran there last time out. I may not find anything of course, but let's have a look...

The top level figures for horses that ran at The Royal Meeting LTO...

289 bets / 36 wins / 76 places / 13% sr / -61 SP / -24 BFSP / AE 0.92

Let's split it into handicaps and non handicaps

- Handicaps: 12/110, 23 places.. . 0 SP
- Non-Handicaps: 24/179, 53 places.. -61 SP

HANDICAPS

ODDS

- 18/1 + : 0/27, 2 places
- 16/1 or shorter SP at Newmarket: 12/83, 21 places.. + 27 SP

Let's use that odds cap... 16/1<...

LAST RACE (so the run at Ascot)

- Ran in a Non-Handicap LTO: 3/14, 5 places... +4 SP
- Top 4: 0/15, 4 places (handicapper gets them if winning and/or hard race?)

OTHER

- Distance Move: UP 1 or 2 f: 5/20, 8 places... +29 SP ...+42 BFSP (those that were 16th or worse at Ascot... 4/4)
- 2 to 5 career wins: 51 bets / 10 wins / 15 places / 20% sr / +46 SP / +68 BFSP / AE 1.66
- Dropping 3 classes: 3/6, 4 places... +12 SP (depending on race they are in at Newmarket, that has covered those running in a Group 2 or 3 at Ascot)
- 1 or more RUNS at Track: 30 bets / 7 wins / 10 places / 23% sr / +50 SP / +69 BFSP / AE 2.33
- 1 or more WINS at Track: 5/8, 5 places... +49 SP (at least one win at each of last 4 meetings)
- 1 RUN over course and distance previously: 14 bets / 5 wins / 6 places / 36% sr / +45 SP
- Clear Top Weight (exc claims): 2/7, 4 places... +10 SP
- 11th or worse in weights: 3/10, 5 places... +18 SP

Trainers

- R Fahey: 2/3, 2 places... +27 SP
- M Johnston: 2/5, 2 places... +17 SP
- Sir Michael Stoute: 0/4, 0 places
- J Gosden: 0/3, 0 places
- A Balding: 0/5, 1 place

A few angles of interest there to get excited about I think. Hopefully they help you sift a few of the handicaps. It will be interesting to see how those with previous course runs/wins get on.

NON HANDICAPS

ODDS

- 22/1 + : 0/29, 4 places
- 10/1 + : 1/72, 8 places... -51 SP
- 9/1 < : 23/107, 45 places... -10 SP

Let's just look at those priced 9/1 or under running at Newmarket...

LAST RACE (so the run at Ascot)

- 1st LTO: 8/17, 10 places... +15 SP
- 2nd: 6/23, 12 places... -6 SP

OTHER

- 4 year olds: 6/17, 8 places... +15 SP
- 1 run last 90 days: 3/9, 3 places... +13 SP

Trainer

- J Gosden: 3/5, 3 places... +5 SP
- M Johnston: 3/12, 5 places... 0 SP
- Sir Michael Stoute: 2/5, 3 places... +4 SP
- R Hannon (jnr): 2/7, 3 places... +1 SP

That is all for this set of notes.

I hope they help point you to a few decent priced winners over the three day meeting. Royal Ascot showed some promise for this approach – esp that of the micro systems (+11 points), building on promise at Punchestown and a decent enough Aintree. I would hope Fahey/Johnston/Gosden could add to those profits, as well as the two ‘micro angles’ from Stoute and Hills (There is no real distinction really – those with 5 or more wins for an angle I have labelled ‘micro systems’, if that makes sense)

There are also a few exciting angles for those that ran at Royal Ascot last time out and it will be interesting to see whether they continue to point to winners moving forward.

As always, in general, we are dealing with small numbers so some caution should be exercised. Of course some of the trainers will likely have winners with angles not touched on or where there was previously a poor record. That is how it goes with this approach.

So, good luck with however you use them,

Happy Punting
