

INTRO

What follows is another 'track profile' from my upcoming Trainer Track Profiles: Jumps 2016/17 stats pack. Some, well maybe just me, say it's the must have guide if you enjoy betting on 'winter' jumps racing. ☺ (also known as 'proper racing'!)

I have tried to make this guide more focussed and with some more interesting micro angles. The idea is to help you with shortlisting when deciding your bets or to use as a set of micro angles - building up a portfolio that you may wish to follow systematically. It is there for you to use as you please.

If you are a regular racegoer you can take the relevant profile with you as well.

As always my aim is to try and make your experience of our great sport more enjoyable and more profitable.

Hopefully it is all self-explanatory but if you have any questions you know where I am. The stats are from 2013/14/15/16- . So, three full years and 2016 to date.

The aim here isn't to do any 'selling'. I will save that for another day. But, given Kelso have their first meeting of the new season on Wednesday I thought you may find this useful...
