Royal Ascot 2018: Trainer / Jockey / Sire Stats Pointers

Intro

What follows are a collection of trainer / jockey / sire stats for this year's Royal Ascot. All stats focus on the previous 5 meetings. I have tried to focus on angles that may highlight decent priced horses. Given the nature of this approach the samples will always be relatively small, but at these big meetings I am a believer that focussing on the trainers and jockeys is as important as the horses. Most of the horses will be here to run the race of their lives. I would not advise backing all 'qualifiers' systematically but instead use them as 'starting points' and a 'way in'. There will be winners from those below that the angles do not cover. I will highlight any qualifiers each day in the Free posts the evening before the next day, for you to use as you please. We shall see how they get on. With that said, let's get to it,

Best of luck,

Josh
