

MICRO MONDAY

RTP Micro Monday Report

As it's the start of November I thought it may be useful to see which trainers have historically done well at this time of year. I will try and do this for each month and I'll attempt to get December's completed in time for the 1st.

I will post any 'qualifiers' from the three highlighted trainers (Fergal O'Brien/Ben Pauling/Colin Tizzard) in the Members' Test Zone.

Who's 'hot' in November?

In the last 5 years there have been 5 National Hunt Trainers with a win % of 20% or higher, with all their runners. Obviously don't go backing these blind but you may find it useful.

Who's Profitable in November?

Of more interest.... the following table focusses on those who've trained at least 100 runners in the time period (November/2014>) and who've been profitable to Starting Price, with all runners >>>

Trainer	Bets	Wins	Win%	P/L(SP)	Places	Place%	ROI(SP)	P/L(BF)	ROI(BF)	P/L(Plc)	A/E
OBrien, Fergal	202	40	19.8	50.3	80	39.6	24.9	75.83	37.54	1.57	1.12
Hobbs, P J	424	84	19.81	48.27	183	43.16	11.38	294.58	69.48	86.56	1.01
Pauling, Ben	193	38	19.69	41.08	77	39.9	21.28	71.67	37.13	35.33	1.22
Scott, J	138	18	13.04	28.56	37	26.81	20.7	101.13	73.28	-7.64	1.17
Williams, Venetia	285	47	16.49	16.88	92	32.28	5.92	58.4	20.49	-2.19	1.07
Tizzard, C L	337	66	19.58	16.23	139	41.25	4.82	60.17	17.85	56.5	1.2

Below I've looked in more depth at those trainers above, focussing on three of them. I couldn't really find a systematic angle for Phillip Hobbs that I was happy with, and nor could I for Jeremy Scott, however both are clearly worth keeping an eye on.

I wanted to find a few 'systematic' angles with decent win SRs/profit to SP. I will post the qualifiers for these in the Test Zone for you to use/ignore as you please. Of course, it will be worth checking to see if the trainers are 'in form' or look likely to burst into form.
